To check your status online, please visit the USCIS Case Status Online service . If you would like my help finding out the status of your immigration or citizenship application, please print out my Authorization Form and fax or mail it to my office. If you have any questions, feel free to call my office.