

For Immediate Release: April 6, 2011

In a letter to President Obama today, Congressman Hunter urged the President to stand firm against any pressure to resume a primary leadership role in Libya and ensure other nations within NATO maintain full mission responsibility. According to Hunter, NATO must not become a euphemism for American combat resources, troops and funding.

A copy of Congressman Hunter's letter is available here .